

Child Welfare Information Gateway

PROTECTING CHILDREN ■ STRENGTHENING FAMILIES

What is Child Welfare Information Gateway?

Child Welfare Information Gateway promotes the safety, permanency, and well-being of children and families by connecting child welfare, adoption, and related professionals to information and resources that help them address the needs of children and families in their communities.

Gain access to print and electronic publications, websites, and online databases covering a wide range of child welfare topics, including child abuse prevention, family preservation, foster care, domestic and intercountry adoption, search and reunion, and much more. Information Gateway is the connection to:

- Programs
- Research
- Statistics
- Laws & policies
- Training resources

A service of the Children's Bureau, Child Welfare Information Gateway consolidates and expands upon the services formerly provided by the National Adoption Information Clearinghouse and the National Clearinghouse on Child Abuse and Neglect Information.
