Welcome to Jefferson County’s Parent Partner Program

Jefferson County Department of Human Services (the Department) is one of nine sites in the country that was awarded a five-year federal grant to “Improve Child Welfare Outcomes through Systems of Care.” Jefferson County’s Systems of Care Vision is “Keep Our Children Safe Through Healthy Families and Strong Communities.”

The Mission is “To promote the welfare of children and families through the development of sustainable partnerships that provide integrated, quality services that are individualized, strength based, family centered and culturally sensitive.”

The Department’s Systems of Care approach is based on the following five Guiding Principles:

- Youth and Family Involvement in all aspects of the system
- Individualized Strength-based Care Practice that acknowledges a child’s and family’s unique set of strengths and needs
- Culturally Competent services and supports for families, providers and agencies throughout the county
- Interagency Collaboration that engages all child and family serving agencies within a community
- Accountability of services provided

The Parent Partner Program focuses primarily on the Family Involvement principle. Family Involvement is important because:

- Families are the experts on their families
- Families who have been through the system can be a great asset to those going through the system
- Families can educate professionals about their needs and the services provided
- Families have a different perspective that is important and should be respected.

Systems of Care began in the mental health system and has shown promise in helping stabilize placements of children and addressing, in a positive fashion, the mental health needs of children, youth and families. With this grant, child welfare has the opportunity to implement the same principles to transform its own policies, practices, and relationships with other child and family serving agencies to better serve children and their families.
Parent Partner Roles
Parent Partners are parents, kin, foster or adoptive parents that have had personal experience with the child welfare system in Jefferson County and are willing to volunteer their time to help other families. If there has been a child welfare case, the case must be closed before a family may apply to be a Parent Partner.

Parent Partners share their personal experience with the child welfare system by sitting on various decision making committees, co-facilitating orientation meetings for clients coming into the system, facilitating parent support groups, reviewing materials generated by child welfare and mentoring new clients coming into the system. As a mentor, Parent Partners provide emotional support, attend court hearings and staffings with their mentoring partner, provide healthy role modeling, and assist in navigating the various systems. Parent Partners inform the child welfare process in so many ways and are critical to the success of new clients and to the process in general.

Nomination and Referral Process
Caseworkers and other professionals are encouraged to nominate parents that they feel would be a positive asset to the program. Self-referrals will also be accepted. Nominees must have had a personal experience with the child welfare system and if they have had an open child protection or delinquency case, it must now be closed. An initial phone screening will occur and will be followed by an interview with the program coordinator. Background and motor vehicle checks will be conducted on all interested participants.

Confidentiality/Consent to Release Information
All participants of the program must sign a ‘Right to Privacy’ form and confidentiality statements. Due to the nature of child protection cases, Parent Partners will be trained on the importance of confidentiality issues. This is to protect the family that the Parent Partner is mentoring, as well as the Parent Partner. Confidentiality is critical in all of the different roles a Parent Partner plays including mentoring, sitting at decision making meetings or other staffings where a family’s case is being discussed as well as during orientations where clients are sharing personal information.

Training
Parent Partners will be required to participate in various trainings including leadership, the child welfare system and related topics, their role on decision-making committees and topics related to Systems of Care. All Parent Partners will also be required to attend at least one Child Welfare Orientation.

Supervision
Parent Partners will meet personally with the program coordinator on a monthly basis. They will also be required to meet once a month for group supervision. Issues Parent Partners are having with their mentee, with other professionals or with the program should be brought up in individual or group supervision.

Parent Partners will keep a Monthly Contact Sheet to record how s/he is specifically aiding the mentoring family.

Reimbursement for Services

Parent Partners will receive a gift card for $10.00 per hour when participating in some aspects of the program such as training to become a Parent Partner and other trainings specific to the program, participating in committees, speaking at new worker orientations and other engagements, to name a few. Parent Partners will receive $50.00 in gift cards per month per family that they are mentoring. Parent Partners will be paid $100.00 per day when travelling with the Systems of Care grant team. Each Parent Partner will have a time sheet to record the time spent on each activity. Time sheets will need to be signed by an employee of the Department conducting the event. Time sheets need to be turned into the program coordinator at the Support Group Meeting following the month in which the activities took place. Gift cards for qualifying activities will be available for pick up at the Department after the 10th of the following month. For example, time sheets for February's activities should be handed in at the March Monthly Support Group. Gift cards for February's activities will be available after April 10th.

Caseworker/Mentor Relationship

The caseworker must fill out a referral to request a mentor for a parent on their caseload who is interested in having such support. The program coordinator will contact the client to get further information and to make the best possible selection when assigning a mentor. There will be an introductory meeting arranged by the program coordinator, between the mentor and client to discuss the policies of the mentor program.

The client will be provided the contact information of his or her mentor. Some of the ways a mentor can be helpful is to attend meetings and court with a client, assist the client in accessing resources and navigating the various systems and providing emotional support. The mentor should assist the client in advocating for themselves.

It is the responsibility of the client to keep his or her caseworker updated with any changes, or progress on the treatment plan. The mentor will not be responsible for updating the caseworker regarding any aspects of the case. In the event of an emergency, the mentor will report the incident to the intake hotline should it relate to possible child abuse or neglect.

Parent Partner Program
Of Jefferson County

“Right to Privacy” Policy

The Parent Partner Program respects the ‘Right to Privacy’ for our clients. All Parent Partners who have access to personal information have a responsibility they are bound to the client, their family, the Parent Partner Program of Jefferson County, the community, and themselves. The program’s clients act in good faith, expecting that their circumstances and personal matters will remain private. Thus we are obligated by both law and ethics to honor this trust.

Though not all-inclusive, the following is presented to provide some guidelines concerning the subject of ‘Right to Privacy’. The “client” is any person who is served by the Parent Partner Program of Jefferson County and Jefferson County Division of Children Youth and Families.

1. No identifying information about the Program’s clients (names, addresses, social security numbers, physical disabilities, reasons for services, etc.) should be revealed to anyone outside the Program, and only those in the program to whom the information is necessary for the welfare of the client.

2. Discussing personal circumstances concerning a client, even though names, addresses, or other identifying information is not used, is also considered a breach of ‘Right to Privacy’. A Parent Partner might possibly describe in detail personal experiences and information concerning a client, even though the name and address is not revealed, this descriptive material may jeopardize the clients right to privacy. Thus, the discussion or description of a client’s personal information or circumstances may provide information to others that identifies that person.

3. The ‘Right to Privacy’ applies to verbal and written information, written records, video, film, pictures, or the use of the client’s name in any publication.

4. Parent Partners and client shall sign a statement that s/he has read and understands the program policy on ‘Right to Privacy’ and agrees to program participation under these guidelines.

5. Parent Partners need to understand and agree that upon completion or termination of their services with Parent Partner Program of Jefferson County, they will maintain all information about the previously mentioned parties in the strictest of confidence.

6. When Parent Partners have questions or concerns regarding ‘Right to Privacy’ matters they should discuss this with the Parent Partner Coordinator as soon as possible.
Limits of Right to Privacy

1. Information will be released to other individuals or organizations only after receiving an authorized “consent to release information” form signed by the client.
2. Information shall only be provided to law enforcement officials or the courts pursuant to a valid and enforceable subpoena and/or court order.
3. Information shall be provided to the program’s legal counsel in the event of litigation or potential litigation involving the program. Such information is considered privileged information, and the law protects its confidentiality.
4. State law mandates that suspected child abuse be reported to the appropriate authorities—Jefferson County Human Services Child Protection Department. Parent Partners are responsible for knowing such reporting requirements and shall always comply with mandated procedures.
5. If any Parent Partner receives information indicating a client may be dangerous to himself or herself or to others, necessary steps may be taken to protect the appropriate party. This may include making a report to the local law enforcement authorities.

I have read and understand the ‘Right to Privacy’ Policy that states the program policy with respect to Right of Policy for every client and their records. I agree to program participation under the conditions it sets forth.

The System of Care team is recruiting family members to be part of the Parent Partner program as outlined below. Please nominate a family member with whom you have worked with in CYF, who has made the necessary life changes in order to have their children returned to their care (or remain in their care). Your nominee must be closed to CYF, even if it is a recent closure. You may also nominate foster, kin and adoptive parents as well as birth parents, who could serve in the roles listed.

Nominees will be screened including background checks for any recent activity. Training will be provided and support will be built in for them during their time as a Parent Partner. Parents will receive financial compensation for the training time and their participation in subcommittees.

A true system of care reflects collaboration with parents instead of serving them. We hope that by engaging families to share their experience in the system, we will help break down barriers, empower families and inform the system of practical ways to provide more effective aligned services on behalf of children and families.

Parent Partners: are life-trained paraprofessionals who have successfully navigated the child welfare system. These parents can offer a wealth of knowledge and experience two ways:

1. As parent advocates the parent partners will mentor parents currently involved in the system. Some of the ways a mentor can be helpful is to attend meetings and court with the parent, access resources, navigate systems and provide emotional support, as well as and new client orientations as a supportive voice for the family.
2. As Parent leaders the parent partners will act as the ‘Family Voice’ as participants on various committees and workgroups.
